Day 05

Tour to Colca Canyon. It is an expedition by minibus or land rover to the deepest canyon in the world at 3420 m (11,220 ft). Out of the city one can also find the superb natural landscape like the Colca Valley, 148 Km (92 miles) north east from Arequipa. The Condor Viewpoints is a great place for appreciating the snow peaks like Ampato and Sabancaya. The impressive Colca Valley is a region of beautiful places surrounded by terraces, snow peaks and old towns founded in the 16th century. Overnight in Chivay

Día 06

Continue to Yaque flanked by apparently inaccessible agricultural terraces, to Cruz del Condor. This overlooks the most spectacular precipice from where condors are often seen to glide in the up draughts. Return to Arequipa around 17:00hrs. Overnight in Arequipa

DAY 07

Transfer to the airport. Flight to Puno. Transfer to the hotel. Overnight in Puno

DAY 08 - Lake Titicaca

Excursion to the island of the Uros, floating islands of reeds on Lake Titicaca. The islands are built on the basis of reeds, which grows in much of the lake. The trip will last three hours and will lead us to the Islands; children offer souvenirs and small rafts of reeds and women sell hermosnos looms.

In the afternoon, visit to the island of Taquile. The trip will last 30 minutes by motor boat. This island is known for its fabrics, you can purchase textiles in the cooperative fabric of the island. There are no hotels in Taquile. Return to Puno at 17:30 or so.

Overnight in Puno

DAY 09 Puno-CUSCO

Transfer to the bus station. Tourist bus from Puno to Cusco. Visit of the tourist sites such as: Andabuaylillas, Rajqui.

Puno, is located on the plateau of Collao, on the shores of Lake Titicaca. It was founded in 1668 and is the highest principal Port of the world. Legend has it that Manco Capac, the first Inca, and Mama Ocllo, his sister-wife, emerged from the waters of Lake Titicaca and founded Puno. It is said that the royal couple was sent to build the indigenous Uros, whose descendants live in the famous islands at present. It is found desirable connected to Cuzco either by train, bus or domestic flights.
